With the "Billy" Sunday meetings a thing of the past, women's clubs are pursuing the even tenor of their way. The Dundee Women's club and the City club, both of which postponed their opening meetings until after the campaign, reopen their winter season this week.

The Benson Women's club, which changed its meeting day to Monday, the day that the "Billy" Sunday party rested, during the campaign, has changed back to its regular meeting day, which is Thursday.

A great number of additional women's clubs is the aftermath of the campaign. Dozens of Bible study classes, among all classes, and the Business Women's council, which will be retained as a permanent institution, are among them.

Mrs. T. L. Cathers will be hostess for the first meeting of the City club Wednesday afternoon. The Bay View course on South America and Panama will be studied this year. On Wednesday Mrs. W. H. Anderson will lead the program on "The Panama Canal." Roll call response will be items of interest regarding the canal.

The Omaha Rockford College association will meet Wednesday with Mrs. J. H. Beaton, Mrs. J. H. Wright, Jr., Mrs. W. F. Crook and Miss Gladys Goodman will assist the hostess. This is the regular monthly meeting of the organization.

Chandler M. of the P. E. O. sisterhood was entertained at a musicale at the home of Mrs. A. F. Stryker in South Side Saturday afternoon. The affair was arranged by Mrs. Anna Bratton and Mrs. J. D. Ringler. Vocal solos were given by Miss Laura Peterson and Miss Mary Virtue; readings by Miss Dora Sasa, and violin numbers by Miss Virginia Piskey. Miss Nora Neal was the accompanist. Fifty women were present.

Miss Eunice Ensor, director of social extension work for the public schools, will address the Omaha Woman's club Monday afternoon. An executive meeting at 1:15 o'clock and a directory meeting at 1:45 o'clock will precede the opening of the club at 2:30 o'clock.

The music department, of which Mrs. J. E. Haarmann is leader, will have charge of the open day program which follows. Through the courtesy of the Omaha Conservatory of Music, a program by Mrs. Edith Wagoner, pianist, and Mr. J. E. Brill, violinist, will be given. The numbers are: Corelli, Sonata A major, Mr. Brill and Mrs. Wagoner. Schumann, Fantasia 2d movement, Mrs. Wagoner. Wieniawski, Legende, Mr. Brill and Mrs. Wagoner. Rameau-McDowell, Sarabande, McDowell, "Will o' the Wisp," "To a Water Lily," Mrs. Wagoner. Le Cygne, German dances, Oberhaus, Maturka, Mr. Brill and Mrs. Wagoner.

A remarkable gain in interest was reported in the home economics department of the Nebraska Federation of Women's Clubs at the state convention. In the section conducted by Mrs. A. E. Davison of Lincoln, fifty-four clubs reported that the subject formed part of the club course of study. This was a greater number than reported at any section except that of literature. The broadening out of the subject to include many matters of vital importance, besides mere cooking, has drawn the interest of thoughtful women of all classes to the study of home economics.

The literature department of the Women's club will be led by Mrs. J. O. Yelzer at its meeting Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the Young Women's Christian association. "The Old poem, 'The Kalevala,'" will be discussed. Mrs. J. P. Ferguson will give the story, Mrs. George Young, the plan and philosophy, and Mrs. T. L. Combs will point out the beauty of the poems.

A class in parliamentary law has been organized to meet just preceding the current topics department meetings of the Omaha Woman's club. The hour is from 2 to 2:30 p. m.

The Baptist Missionary circle of Benson met at the home of Mrs. C. H. Burrill Thursday afternoon. This was the first meeting of the season and many new members were added to the circle. A discussion on "Daybreak in the Dark Continent of Africa" was held. Plans were made for the entertainment of the quarterly session of Omaha one day in November at the Baptist church.

The Benson Women's club will meet at the home of Mrs. J. V. Starrett Thursday afternoon, when Mrs. J. Y. Hooper will lead on the topic of "Book Reviews." A roll call will be answered by events in the life of Mary Antin. Extracts of "They Who Knock at Our Gates" will be given by Mrs. W. F. Vernon and "The Melting Pot" by Mrs. J. W. Welch, Mrs. H. C. Burnham will lead a discussion on "A Review of Immigration."

cludes sixty-five affiliated organizations, representing the country from Maine to Hawaii.

The convention headquarters will be at the New Willard. Those delegates making their headquarters at the Willard will not have to go outside of it for any session save the one great mass meeting on Sunday. The whole tenth floor will be given up to the suffragists for the week.

The program indicates busy sessions for the delegates throughout the entire week. This year's program includes not only business sessions in the daytime, but evening conferences as well. These latter will take the place of the mass meetings open to the public which hitherto have always been a feature of suffrage conventions. Only one big mass meeting will be held at Poll's theater, Sunday, December 13. The change is due to the increase in the business of the association, which has made it necessary to allow the day sessions to be free for the transaction of business. The conferences, two of which will be held simultaneously each evening, will be devoted to a discussion of practical methods for carrying on the suffrage work, both through federal and state amendments, and will cover such topics as publicity, congressional district organization, campaign organization and suffrage literature.

One of the most important conferences held during the week, which will extend probably over two evenings, will be the conference on congressional district organization. The organization of all the states by districts is a work which has begun and has been carried to completion by Mrs. Medill McCormack during her two years' incumbency of the chairmanship of the national congressional committee. The organization makes perfect the co-operation between the national and the state committees in the work for a federal amendment, giving as it does a backing of constituents to the congressional lobby of the national committee.

The College Equal Suffrage league will maintain a bureau of information at the Union station for two days preceding the convention. A new plan for the entertainment of delegates is in the form of personally conducted tours to congress and the government buildings. Members of the Washington branch of the College league and the Washington Woman Suffrage council will serve as guides.

The National College Equal Suffrage league, of which Miss M. Carey Thomas of Bryn Mawr is president, will hold its annual council meeting and subscription luncheon on Saturday, December 13, at the New Willard hotel.

Frank M. Leavitt, professor of industrial education in the school of education of the University of Chicago, will give a series of talks on vocational guidance. In the city this week, in connection with the state teachers' convention, the talk before the teachers will be given Thursday evening and will be "Vocational Guidance as a School Function."

Friday, the vocational guidance section of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae will give a luncheon in Prof. Leavitt's honor at the Commercial club, at which time he will talk on "Vocational Guidance from the Employer's Standpoint." Employers who wish to attend may make reservations with Miss Elizabeth Brenner, leader of the section.

Prof. Leavitt has won marked success with Chicago organizations, municipal and private, and with individual employers in his placement work. He is the father of the plan whereby corporations employing hundreds of boys and girls agreed to the part-time school plan whereby the boys and girls work two weeks and go to school two weeks alternately.

An interesting combination of dates will be the cause of a celebration given by Dr. Adda Wiley Ralston and Mrs. G. F. Copper at the home of Dr. Ralston, on November 12. That day is the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Elizabeth Cady Stanton, the pioneer suffragist, and it is also the fourteenth anniversary of Mrs. Copper's marriage, and the thirteenth anniversary of Dr. Ralston's marriage. To celebrate these events, the two women, who are leaders in South Side suffrage circles, will give an afternoon tea. State, county and local suffrage officers will assist the hostesses. Additional interest is lent by the fact that Mrs. Copper and Mr. Ralston have been friends for over twenty-five years, long before their wives' friendship was cemented by suffrage ardor.

Christianity," and at 11 o'clock the department will adjourn to the domestic science department of the Young Women's Christian association, where a public demonstration will be given.

The board of trustees of the Old People's Home will hold its monthly business meeting Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at the Young Women's Christian association.

The Dundee Women's club will open its club year with a luncheon at the University club Wednesday at 1:30 o'clock. The first meeting of the club was delayed on account of the "Billy" Sunday meetings.

The Business Women's council, which has been formed as a result of the Sunday meetings, will meet Tuesday, 11:30 a. m. to 2 p. m. at Volunteers' hall, 115 North Fifteenth street. Lunch will be served for a small fee. Mrs. J. M. Aiken will be in charge. The council will meet henceforth every Tuesday.

A concert will be given by the Woman's Relief Corps Memorial Day association Wednesday evening at the Young Men's Christian association.

The U. S. Grant Women's Relief corps will hold its regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Memorial hall.

The Omaha Suffrage association will hold its election of officers Wednesday afternoon at 7:30 o'clock at Baright hall.

The City Federation of Child Conservation Leagues will hold its business meeting Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Schmolzer & Mueller auditorium. C. H. Englich, recreation supervisor, will give the principal address and there will be musical numbers. The program begins at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Carl Nielsen, assisted by Mrs. J. W. Arnold, will entertain the West Side Women's Christian Temperance union at her home, 84 South Forty-ninth avenue, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The sermo club will be entertained at a 1 o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. G. W. Hergen Tuesday. Mrs. J. J. Hess will read a paper on "Jane Addams" and the discussion of domestic topics will be continued.

The Women's Christian Temperance union calls attention to the fact that Sunday, November 15, is "World Temperance Sunday," and has requested that it be observed in all Sunday schools in the interests of the "Nebraska dry" campaign.

The North Side circle of the Child Conservation League of America will meet Friday at 2 o'clock in the Monmouth Park school auditorium. The program is as follows: "Child Culture—Reverence, a Love of Nature Through Knowledge," paper, "Waags and Hornets and Their Doings," by Mrs. K. A. Oden; paper, "Beavers as Carpenters and Engineers," by Mrs. J. P. Sheeran; reading, "How Animals Dress Themselves," by Mrs. W. O. Edholm; reading, "The Pied Piper of Hamelin," by Mrs. W. H. Moecker; paper, "The Wonderful Housekeeping of the Honey Bee," by Mrs. William H. Woerner; music, "The Lark," by Eleanor Lear.

Edgar Allen Poe's "Annabel Lee" will be studied by the oratory department of the Women's club Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at the Metropolitan hall.

Y. W. C. A. Notes. Sunday afternoon will be the first regular vesper service of the association since last June, the service having been discontinued during the summer and Sunday campaign. This service is at 4:30 in the auditorium. The social hour follows at 5:30. The service is to be in the nature of a reunion and a good fellowship meeting with short talks by Miss Lilly Strong, the general secretary, and Miss Georgia Wagner, the religious work director. All young women of the city are invited.

The November Budget will be ready by the first of the week. It contains a revised list of the educational classes and household art and gymnasium departments and the time for the Bible classes which have been formed. Other general information will be found in this number.

So much interest has been aroused in Bible work that the association has been kind to arrange for some very splendid classes. Courses have been scheduled for every night but Wednesday and Saturday and if the demand is great enough classes will be put in on these nights.

Miss Clara M. Brewster, director of the gymnasium department, is to give a series of talks this fall in connection with her work. The first one is to be Tuesday night in the auditorium and is open to members of the gymnasium classes only.

On November 8 the association is to give a party for all young women of the city. It is to be an "Out-of-Date" party and all are asked to come dressed in something out-of-date to the name. Further announcements will be made next week.
